THE HISTORY Vennard College was founded in 1910 as Chicago Evangelistic Institute by Dr. Iva Durham Vennard, who served faithfully the interests of the school until her death in 1945. Under her able administration the school became known throughout the world for its thoroughness of Christian training, and its distinctive witness to Wesleyan interpretation of the experience of entire sanctification.

Vennard's Heritage

I. D. Vennard 1910-45

After forty-one years of rich ministry in the city of Chicago, the college moved to University Park, Iowa, in the summer of 1951, thus providing the school with an adequate operating plant on a beautiful seventy-five acre campus previously occupied by Kletzing College, John Fletcher College, and Central Holiness University. Campus buildings consist of two dormitories, administration building, gymnasium, fine arts building, central heating plant, Kiddie Kollege, and president's home. There are several off campus residences and a one hundred acre farm.

J. S. Logan 58-67

H. M. Couchenour 51-58

In 1959 the name of the school was changed to Vennard College, in honor of its founder and first president. With the same doctrinal emphasis, Vennard endeavors to cultivate a deep spiritual experience in its students, a discipline in culture and courtesy, and a thorough educational training.

Looking Upward, Reaching Outward

The phrase that has been chosen as the theme of the 1970 Vision seems to be the essence of our maturation in Christ. To be effective witnesses for Christ we must follow the example of David and experience for ourselves the joy that comes from seeking the Lord as in Psalms 34:4 "I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears." This is a daily requirement if the power of God is to be manifested through the life of a Christian.

Christ continues to ask the question that confronted Isaiah, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" (Isaiah 6:8). As Christians our answer can be no less than total commitment to Christ and, as Isaiah answered, "Here am I; send me." When this total commitment is made, the strength of God can be felt in outreach as David experienced it in Psalms 71:16 "I will go in the strength of the Lord." With this strength of God we can reach out with power and confidence, knowing that Jesus Christ is supporting us with all of his power. Let us therefore, Looking Upward, see Christ in all His glory and, Reaching Outward, share this glory with others that we might see souls won to the Kingdom of God.

Looking

Upward,

Reaching

Outward.

Looking Upward, Reaching Outward significantly characterizes the Dedicatee for it embodies his complete, satisfying, day by day walk with Christ.

Following David's example, we must first look up to the Lord, for as Psalms 27:1 expresses, "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" The dedicatee, Mr. McKnight, has been successful in looking up to the Lord for his strength and salvation, but he has not stopped there.

Following David's example as expressed in Psalms 89:1, "I will sing of the mercies of the Lord forever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations," Mr. McKnight has been "making known" the wonderful faithfulness of his Lord for a number of years. Whether it be in the pulpit, preaching or singing, or at the keyboard of either the piano or organ, the dedicatee is equally able to glorify his Saviour.

Mr. McKnight can be looked up to as an example of a person putting Christ first and Looking Upward for spiritual strength for a close, day by day walk with God, while at the same time reaching outward and sharing Christ with others through a warm and vibrant testimony.

For his wonderful testimony and example to us we dedicate the 1970 Vision to the Reverend Cassius G. McKnight.

ACTIVITIES

"What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

I Corinthians 6:19,20

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

Vennardians Urged to Remember His Timelessness

My Fellow Vennardians:

Now one can yet tell how the history of today's college generation will be written. If it were to be compiled today it would become a permanent record of dissent, alienation, protest and permissiveness. Time may be kind, however, and let the record of a vocal minority take its proper place in a truer perspective of today's college youth.

For it needs to be said now in case it is not said later that today's collegians are not all raucous rebels or alienated anarchists. Many are yet reverent in their regard for the past and responsible in their plans for the future. It is still possible to find young adults who consider themselves debtors rather than creditors in their relationship to others.

Nowhere is that more true than at Vennard. What a blessing it has been to work with young people like yourselves—concerned yet creative; scholarly yet spiritual; ambitious yet dedicated!

May God guide you as many of you now take your place as adults in our society. For a history of your adult generation will also be written. And in all the foment of change, so attractive to your generation as collegians and no less appealing as adults, ever remember the timelessness of HIS Word, HIS Will and HIS Way.

The Reverend James Sherwood presents the keys to the tractor on the truck to Jay Selden, (center) director of campus construction and maintenance. Also pictured are Arthur Hooker (left), William Frost (second from right), and Dr. Merne Harris, Vennard president.

Bill Frost lives in Caledonia, Michigan and attends the United Methodist Church pastored by Jim and June Sherwood. Bill first visited Vennard last spring when he accompanied a group of youth from his church who had come for youth conference. While here, he noted our need for maintenance equipment, especially the need for a large tractor. He returned home, shared his concern with other men in the church and then the Lord began to work.

Each year the campus Missionary Prayer League sponsors a Missionary Convention. A time of information, inspiration, and renewed vision, it affords Vennardians an opportunity to once again examine their own hearts and their place in fulfilling the Great Commission. The testimonies of foreign students whose lives changed when the Gospel reached them through missionary effort were dramatic and challenging.

Dean Contends Adequate Goals Essential to Life

Dear Vennardians:

The establishment of adequate goals for one's life is important for the psychological as well as for the spiritual well being of the individual. A goal that is too easily achieved does not require the discipline of concerted effort, hence the "victory" of achievement is often empty and short lived. A goal that is unattainable, on the other hand, is certain to produce a sense of defeat and frustration. Between these two extremes there are the legitimate goals of life which should be attainable, yet high enough to demand our best in achievement in order to achieve them.

Here at Vennard you are faced constantly with new goals for your life: spiritual goals, academic goals, and social goals. The purpose of these is to help you keep striving; to keep building your life upward toward the fulness of life expressed in the promises of God for you.

The philosophy of the Christian toward life's goals is well summarized by the Apostle Paul in Philippians 3:13-14, "I press forward."

Junior class officers, top to bottom: Ed Wilkinson, Vice-President; Brian Donley, President; Cynthia Wilkinson, Treasurer; Hubert Harriman, Chaplain; Arlene Usery, Secretary; and George Usery, Student Council Representative.

As Juniors continue college life they look back and sense a certain confidence gained from past success. They look forward with realistic anticipation to graduation, and upward to God for grace to meet new and demanding roles of increased responsibility and leadership. They reach outward through these same responsibilities to touch others with the life of Christ.

Well, if you really want to know . . .

He finally asked me!

Ah, it was nothing.

This moment of silence is brought to you by the Junior Class.

Sophomores

The Sophomores are looking back with retrospect on the first hectic year of college life; looking forward with anticipation to the coming years as upper classmen; looking upward to God for strength; reaching outward through Christian Service.

Freshmen

As the Freshmen enter college life with expectancy they are looking back with a sigh of relief to graduation from High School; looking forward toward the distant goal of a college diploma; looking upward for guidance and direction in life; and reaching outward through practical experience in personal witnessing.

SUCCESS

Definition: The ability to get out of life what you want without interfering with the rights and privileges of other people.

Where is it? It is within you, and no other place.

Formula for getting success for you.

1. Take God as your Partner in everything, and everywhere.
2. A Definite Purpose: Exactly what are you going to do with your life; remember, it is yours.
3. Self-Confidence: Believe Sincerely and you Can.
4. Initiative: Do things without being told.
5. Imagination: Dream and work for your Definite Purpose.
6. Enthusiasm: Be Happy and Aggressive about your life's work. Enthusiasm is the Main Spring of the Soul.
7. Self-Control: Don't ever lose your head or your temper. "He that Controls himself, Controls the Situation."
8. Do More than you are Paid for: The Joy of life is in doing More, not in doing just enough.
9. Pleasing Personality: The thing that costs the least and does the most is just a friendly, sincere smile.
10. Habit of Saving: A Part of all you earn is yours to keep. Debt is a Merciless habit, it wrecks and ruins.
11. Be an Accurate Thinker: Always what is right and not who is right.
12. Concentration: Think, Work and Study on one thing at a time and do it well.
13. Cooperation: Work with those of like mind in a spirit of harmony.
14. Failure: Is not defeat, Profit by it but don't be afraid of it.
15. Tolerance: Let others have the right of their own opinion, and respect that privilege.
16. Golden Rule: Don't talk it, Practice it.

CONGRATULATIONS

CLASS OF 1970

You are joining a select group of people—Vennard College alumni. We are proud of our alumni and their achievements and dedication to the cause of Jesus Christ. Over 80% of the alumni of Vennard are engaged in religious occupations. This is the reason for our existence.

This is the Vennard's Decisive Decade for progress in student and faculty growth and quality as well as provision of better facilities for learning and teaching. We need to have you remain informed as to this progress so that you might give needed support. Monetary support is needed—to be sure—but equally as important is your prayer support and interesting prospective students.

We are confident that you will continue to carry high the banners of Christ to all the world and will be an honor to Vennard College.

As we look upward and then reach outward we form the letter "L". The letter "L" is the first letter of the word Love. This is the spirit that prevails on the Vennard College Campus.

This has been a year in which the staff has had to make some adjustments in finance and leadership but as we looked upward we feel that this segment of the College life will reach out to many, to strengthen, encourage and sustain those who look upward in behalf of the college.

To the staff, who have stayed by the job we wish to say how deeply grateful we are as God has provided what has been needed as we looked to Him.
